

2021 Artists in Residence FAQs

Do I have to be an emerging or established artist to apply?

This opportunity is available for artists at any stage of their career. However, artists should have at least 3 years minimum as a practicing artist and can demonstrate an active practice with exhibition and public outcomes.

Is the residency open to artists working across all media?

Yes, we welcome applications from artists working across all mediums. Due to the public nature of the residency it is more suited to artists who are used to working in the public realm and having interaction with the general public.

Do I have to be based in South Australia to apply?

Yes, your primary place of residence should be in South Australia.

Do I have to be a Guildhouse member?

You do not need to be a current Guildhouse to apply for the Artist in Residence. If you are successful and receive a residency you will need to become a Guildhouse financial member.

How many days per week do I need to spend at the ArtPOD?

This is negotiable, but you will be required to spend up to three days per week in the ArtPOD space.

Do I need to engage with the public?

ArtPOD is a visible space located in the City of Adelaide offices in Pirie St. It is glass fronted, so there may be times when you are working and visible to passers-by. There will be a private working space as well in the ArtPOD.

When will I be paid the stipend of $3,000?

The stipend will be paid in two parts over the duration of the residency. You will receive an upfront payment followed by a final payment at the end of the residency.

Do I need to produce finished work for exhibition?

It is anticipated that there will be an exhibition outcome, but this could include work that this already in development and new work. The artist in residence will receive feedback and input from the Emerging Curator and Guildhouse staff about exhibition and public outcome requirements.

Do I receive any support for materials and exhibition outcomes?

There is no additional cash support for materials. There may be some support offered for exhibition outcomes such as hanging systems, plinths etc.

Do I need to have any insurance for the residency?

The artist in residence will need to have public liability insurance. Guildhouse Accredited Membership includes a tailor-made insurance package.

What is the City of Adelaide Strategic Plan 2020-2024?

The Strategic Plan provides guidance for the City of Adelaide over the period 2020-2024. The Strategic Plan consists of four key themes; Thriving Communities, Strong Economies, Dynamic City Culture, Environmental Leadership, underpinned by objectives and actions to demonstrate Council's commitment to tangible results.

